Nature-based Solutions to Global Challenges

1. Course fees are based on whether the course participant works in the private or public/ tertiary sector:

- ❖ £3,200 private sector
- ❖ £2,500 public/tertiary sector

2. We offer a small number of partial and full scholarships to enable participants who would otherwise be unable to take this course. These scholarships are very competitive, with a high number of applications for limited places. Eligibility and selection criteria:

- ❖ From and working in a DAC-listed country (see country list).
- ❖ Priority given to those working in the public and/or tertiary sector (eg. NGO, charities). Small and Medium-sized enterprises may also be considered.
- ❖ High potential to implement learnings from the NbS foundation course for real world impact.
- ❖ Demonstrated need for financial support.

3. By request, group prices may be available if an organisation purchases two or more places to an amount of approximately 5% off the full fee.

4. Places on the course are competitive, however in the occurrence that two weeks prior to the course start date places remain available, last-minute reductions to fill the course may be offered (with the exception of places obtained via the waiting list).

5. Enrolments on the course are capped at 60 participants per run. Once the maximum number of enrolments has been reached a waiting list will be created

6. Your place on the course will be secured when payment has been received. However, in the event of cancellation the following fees will be applied:

- ❖ Up to six weeks prior to a course start date, full fees will be refunded minus an additional administration fee of £100 per participant.

- ❖ Up to four weeks prior to a course start date, 80% of the full fee will be refunded minus an additional administration fee of £100 per participant.
- ❖ Up to two weeks prior to a course start date, 50% of the full fee will be refunded minus an additional administration fee of £100 per participant.
- ❖ Less than 2 weeks prior to the course start date and once the course has begun, the full fee will be forfeited.
